CAGTC Elects New Chairman and Six Directors

*Freight Coalition Celebrates 15th Anniversary
Welcoming New Leadership*

WASHINGTON, DC (May 12, 2016) – The Coalition for America's Gateways and Trade Corridors (CAGTC) today elected Tim Lovain, who represents the State of Washington to the Coalition, as its third Chairman and filled six Board of Directors seats as the freight advocacy organization celebrated its 15th anniversary. Former Treasurer Paul Hubler of Alameda Corridor – East Construction Authority was elected Vice-Chairman and current Board member Paul Anderson, President & CEO of Port Tampa Bay, will assume the position of Treasurer. Southern California Association of Governments representative Sharon Neely, who served as Chairman since 2013, will transition to Immediate Past Chairman.

CAGTC membership filled six expiring Board member terms. Joining CAGTC's Board is:

- Jim Brogan, Executive Vice President, Cambridge Systematics

Re-elected to the Board are:

- Chuck Baker, President, National Railroad Construction & Maintenance Association
- Rick Cameron, Managing Director of Environmental Affairs & Planning, Port of Long Beach
- Paul Hubler, Director of Government and Community Relations, Alameda Corridor – East Construction Authority (incoming Vice Chairman)
- Tim Lovain, Executive Vice President, Capitol Strategies (incoming Board Chairman)
- Glenn Miles, Executive Director, Kootenai Metropolitan Planning Organization

"I am delighted to be selected to serve as CAGTC's Chairman as we celebrate fifteen successful years promoting policy to improve U.S. freight transportation capabilities," said Tim Lovain. "I have worked with CAGTC since its inception so I appreciate its very able staff and committed membership. I welcome our new and re-elected directors and officers and look forward to working with them as we pursue our goals as the foremost freight infrastructure advocacy voice in Washington D.C. and throughout the nation."

The Board, which consists of 17 members representing the Coalition's geographic and organizational diversity, is tasked with the development of CAGTC policy and is frequently called upon to offer guidance and perspective from their own organizations.
